

Godfly

If only God were a gadfly
A Godfly with g lowered just
Shy of silence... lovebiting

They say God gave that up

God perhaps the strangest name
Used with homeopathic regularity
Such flights of false familiarity

Consider the equivalents

Person is not a name
But Guy, despite all the guys, is
Guy: kiss me so I know

Whether you're real or faking it

Guy: cling to me, make a
Paradox of your wings, guyfly
God: leave me to believe

You, not moths, made these holes
